In Memoriam

CLINTON H. BONNEY

● Pupils and teachers owe a debt of gratitude to the late Mr. Clinton H. Bonney, historian and friend, whose fine services and sincere manner are sorely missed by his friends at Brockton High School. All who knew Mr. Bonney found him a true scholar and gentleman, a man really worth knowing. In the future we shall always look to his memory for inspiration.

Class Officers

President Eugene Nawrocki, Vice-President Niki Eonas, Secretary Margaret O'Connell, and Treasurer Fred Baroncelli relax from their duties.

Executive Committee

Charles Barnes, Joan Crosby, Barbara Nelson, Joan Nelson, and George Allen were able assistants to the class officers.

Teachers and pupils of Brockton High School pay tribute to a man who leaves his position after thirty-five years of outstanding service in Brockton High athletics.

E. Marion Roberts, coming to Brockton in 1913, found the football and baseball teams in the earliest stages of their development. Highland Park in Avon served as the official field for school athletic activities; teams required the financial support of the school board. Today, through the efforts of Mr. Roberts and others, Brockton High is able to be proud of its well-rounded athletic program, its self-supporting teams, its fine athletic field, and an enthusiastic school following.

We thank you, Mr. Roberts.

1949 Class Ode

MARIE SHERMAN

Our bright youth led us to this goal
Through swift years skimming by.
Our hope has always made us hold
God's Truth up to His sky.

We've searched for knowledge that will make
Fine lives of worth and fame
For those who capture and who take
What knowledge has to claim.

Each eager mind grasped Wisdom's word
To store for future need.
Each open heart has surely heard
A cry for some great deed.

SYLVIA McRAE

The world is now within the reach
Of hands that hope to mold
A way of life for all to teach
A story yet untold.

Youth asks but for a chance to prove
Its worth to God's own world;
To be among the first to move
To call of flag unfurled.

Pray for us now, O hopeful land,
That we may bring you fame,
That we may give to life's demand,
And honor your great name.

Class Poem

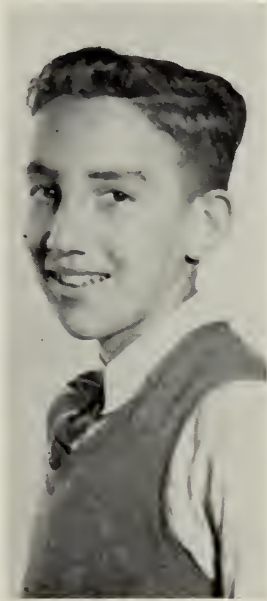

THE CHALLENGE TO YOUTH

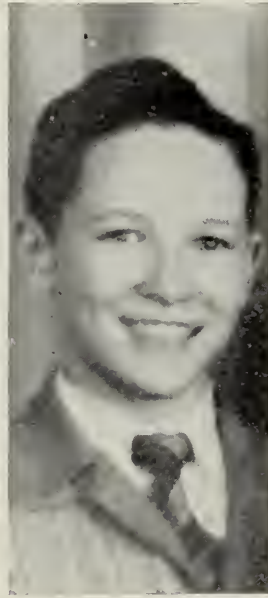

By JOAN KINSMAN

The road of Life winds 'round a hill,
And disappears beyond our view;
It shows a life with joy or pain,
A life with sunshine or with rain,
A life that springs with hope anew.
The burdens that we each must bear,
Serve but to keep our heads held high.
Though striving toward a goal are we,
We still can drop our eyes to see
The earth's great charms as we pass by:
The flowers blooming by the way,
The blessing of each loyal friend,
The glorious ring of Freedom's song,
Freedom from fear—oppression—wrong—
Until we find at journey's end
Success—and then we shall feel joy
To know our tasks are all well-done,
Our labors have not been in vain,
The sweat and tears a goal to gain,
The problem's past; the victory won!
This is the country that we love.
How can we fall along the way?
We've seen our life's goal from afar—
The world is ours to make or mar—
The challenge to our youth today!

President's Address

By EUGENE NAWROCKI

Superintendent Nelson, Headmaster Frellick, Assistant Headmaster Montgomery, Dean Sylvester, Members of the graduating class, and friends:—

For most of us, today is one of our last appearances as students of Brockton High School. It is, for us, a very proud day. This occasion marks the culmination of three years of work and pleasure. We hope that you, our guests, will enjoy this afternoon with us and will share the satisfaction which we are deriving from this week of festivity.

This is a special occasion, not only for us; it is also an important event for you, too. The understanding help which you parents have so generously given us has been an important factor in our success. Our triumph is, in this respect, yours also.

Superintendent Nelson, Headmaster Frellick, and the entire faculty of the high school can feel proud of the rôle which they have played in our training and education. Their untiring and sympathetic efforts, their endless patience were always present when these qualities were most needed. It is difficult to express our gratitude to them properly.

Those three not-so-long years have given us all much pleasure. To those who have been athletically inclined, the high school has presented an opportunity to participate in sports, with good equipment and under excellent guidance. Doubtless, the students who have confined their athletic interest to attending the various games have enjoyed themselves also. In our memories of our high-school days, those of us who have been interested in drama and in dancing can recall with gratification the Class Play and the school dances.

Most of us have made many good friends, both with other students and with teachers. Naturally, many of these bonds will, of necessity, be loosened by the rapid changes soon to occur. Thus, although we are looking forward to the future with anticipation, we have a mixed feeling of regret for those companions whom we shall see so seldom in the coming years.

We can, perhaps for the first time, realize the great benefits of a high school education. We have learned many things—the written knowledge of books, the practical knowledge in various crafts, but most of all, the fact that we have certain obligations to ourselves, our friends, and our country.

This year, Brockton High School has lost two outstanding figures in its history. We of the graduating class regret deeply the death of Mr. Clinton H. Bonney,

Historians

Frances Connell, Alice Georgandas, James Healey, Antoinette Minerva, Margaret O'Connell, and Edward Tarkinson poked and prodded through volumes of class records to present the senior class with an accurate and interesting account of their years at Brockton High School.

Class History

"No more pencils! No more books!—" How often have we quoted this time-worn phrase in our carefree, younger days. For those of us who are not going to college, June 9th will afford the final opportunity for cursing the three "R's." Seriously, as we reminisce over our three hectic years at Brockton High School, we realize with pride how actively we have participated in the traditional school affairs.

On the sports parade, we proved victors in almost every field. After compiling excellent records in our sophomore and junior years, the champion senior football team climaxed a brilliant season with a second battle of the North and South, in which the Red and Black defeated Edison High of Miami in the Orange Bowl. Our junior year was a "bonus" one for the baseball and golf teams. The Baseball Nine sparkled as much as the proverbial diamond when they won the Eastern Massachusetts State Championship. While the golf team won the State Championship, the '49 hockey and track teams showed the "stuff they were made of" along with the basketball, cross-country, and tennis teams. The girls, not to be surpassed by the stronger sex, were avid participants of the intramural sports.

The shining attraction of '49 was the high school band, which established for itself a name as one of the great bands of the state. Another group which became prominent during our senior year was the "Galloneers," sixteen debonair men of song, who by their unusual interpretation and styling won the plaudits of all those who heard them.

The Sarah Bernhardts and John Barrymores of our class were given a chance to display their talents in the hilarious success, "The Fighting Littles." We at last came into our own when as seniors, we tripped the light fantastic at the merry "Forty-Niners' Frolic."

Changes occurred. At the close of 1946, Headmaster Haskins accepted a position at Westfield, and, coming in as juniors, we began our last two years under Mr. Frellick, who has proved to be an inspirational leader and friend. The resignation of E. Marion Roberts, director of athletics for the past thirty-five years, came as a surprise to all. Mr. Roberts is now planning to guide young apple trees rather than champion football teams. Brockton High School will miss this capable and gentlemanly member of our faculty. In our senior year, our happiness was dimmed by the untimely death of Clinton Bonney, beloved head of the history department, and the deaths of Richard Obert and James Alden, two of our classmates. We realize full well the significance of the saying, "In the midst of life, we are in death."

Along with the joy and thrill of graduation, we shall momentarily be saddened at this step in our lives. We shall no longer see many of the familiar faces which have passed us so frequently in the corridors. But, looking back, we shall always consider our years at Brockton High School part of the best years of our lives.

Prophets

Robert H. Anderson, Charles Barnes, Joan Crosby, Anne Doody, Niki Eonas, Robert Ferrini, Barbara Nelson, and Harry Ryder provided such a program of merriment and rollicking fun that we suspect they were working with the imps of Satan.

The girls of B.H.S. turned domestic in '49. They knitted socks in every spare moment.

the beloved and respected head of our History Department. We regret equally the retirement of Mr. E. Marion Roberts, who served as a coach and director of athletics for so many years.

To thank each person separately for his help in the successful attainment of our goal would be impossible. Perhaps, however, we can thank our headmaster, Mr. Ralph S. Frellick, for his thoughtful and omnipresent aid. We have all benefited greatly through his friendly and judicious counsel.

Now, as the representative of the graduating class of 1949, it is my pleasure to welcome each and every one of you to these Class Day exercises, with the sincere hope that each person present will enjoy them to the utmost.

Band

This has been perhaps the busiest year yet for a Brockton High Band which has attained a size and balance of instruments not matched in recent years.

In addition to an extremely busy season presenting snappy half-time shows at all the football games, the band was granted the distinction of being selected to play for the Plymouth County Teachers at their annual convention; of being televised at the Brockton-Beverly game at Lynn; and of being chosen to play at the campaign rally for the President of the United States of America. Of course the band lent its support to the "Brockton to Miami" Campaign by parading and playing at the jamboree, and participated in other parades, rallies, and assemblies.

The climax of its spring concert season at home was its participation in "Music in the American Way of Life," a concert of High School music organizations in B. H. S. auditorium on the night of May 13. The memorable experience of taking part in the Southeastern Massachusetts Music Festival at New Bedford, and later in the New England Music Festival at Old Orchard Beach, Maine, marked the highest moments in a bandsman's life, and the band made a good accounting of itself on those occasions. Finally, the year's work was brought to a close with the band's contribution to the Commencement Exercises.

Girls' Glee Club

The Girls' Glee Club, since its founding in 1936, has been a popular and important organization in our school's activities. It has been under the capable direction of Mr. George Sawyer Dunham, who is a well-known musician. One of the most important events which the Glee Club took part in this year, along with the Male Chorus and A Capella Choir was the musicale, "Music in the American Way of Life."

The officers for the year 1948-49 were the following: President, Katherine Tevlin; Vice-President, Carol Bourne; Secretary, Virginia Tosca; Treasurer, Lorraine Lightfoot; Librarians, Joan Walsh and Jean Mackin.

A Cappella Choir

The A Cappella Choir, one of the newest musical organizations in our school, has completed successfully its third year of activities. This year the choir consisted of two groups of seventy mixed voices. Two different sets of officers were elected to represent each group. The officers of the group which met the first hour on Mondays and Thursdays were the following: President, Harry Ryder; Vice-President, Henry Belcher; Secretary, Mary Gilmore; Treasurer, Jane Tilson. The officers of the choir which met the third hour on Tuesdays and Fridays were as follows: President, Davis Scudder; Vice-President, David Merrihew; Secretary, Rosamond Murdock; Treasurer, Joseph Romano.

Besides providing the music for the yearly production of the Christmas Pageant, the A Cappella Choir took part in the musicale, "Music in the American Way of Life," which was a concert combining some of the features of the operetta, including staging, costuming, and scenery.

The A Cappella Choir was directed by Mr. Rodney May and the accompanists were Pauline Anderson and Mary McGowan.

The Male Chorus

The Male Chorus, under the capable leadership of its director, Mr. Rodney F. May, has completed successfully its well-rounded program of activities for the year of 1949. This year the chorus visited several junior high schools throughout our city presenting assemblies which were both entertaining and educational. The chorus also took an active part in the spring musicale, "Music in the American Way of Life."

In its many appearances, the Male Chorus endeavored to satisfy all types of audiences. Songs rendered by the group included selections, spirituals, non-sense songs, and barber shop ballads.

Officers of the chorus were the following: Carroll Promades, President; Davis Scudder, Vice-President; George Hatch, Secretary; and Bernard Johnson, Treasurer. The accompanist for the group was Claire Cahill.

Orchestra

The High School Orchestra played at all the assemblies showing exceptional skill, and delighting the ear. The orchestra is composed of twenty members and is under the capable direction of Mr. George Sawyer Dunham.

On the evening of May 13, the orchestra gained additional plaudits by their appearance in "Music in the American Way of Life," a concert of the high school music organizations in Brockton High School auditorium. One of the outstanding pieces was "The King's Prayer and Finale from Lohengrin," by Wagner.

At the assemblies the registered members were augmented by several other players from the school.

Galloneers

This year a new choral group originated in our school. This group, consisting of sixteen male voices—a combination of four quartets, called itself the Galloneers. During the year the Galloneers became well-known in musical circles throughout Brockton and the vicinity, appearing in many church and civic affairs. The boys also took part in the spring high school musicale and participated in the New England festival of music at Old Orchard Beach, Maine. This organization was formed especially for boys who are interested in singing not only for musical development but also for the comradeship which accompanies such an activity.

Student manager of the group was Harry Ryder. Other personnel of the group included First tenors, Ray Cummings, Russell Reed, Carl Raymond, Ralph Coots; second tenors, Henry Belcher, Donald Chase, Robert Forsberg, Raymond Cobis; baritones, Donald Hayward, Gerald Byrne, Charles Barnes, Harry Ryder; basses, Carroll Promades, Davis Scudder, Gerald Grant, and John Wallan.

The Galloneers are to become a permanent club in our high school. Each year, following graduation, the senior members of the club will become members of an alumni club. Those who graduated this year and became the first alumni members were Charles Barnes, Henry Belcher, Donald Chase, Raymond Cobis, Ray Cummings, Robert Forsberg, Carroll Promades, Harry Ryder, Davis Scudder, and John Wallan.

Mr. Rodney May was the director of the Galloneers and Claire Cahill was the accompanist.

Hi-Y

The Hi-Y Club, affiliated with the Y.M.C.A., is a national organization of high school boys. It is the largest society of secondary schoolboys in the United States. Membership in the Brockton Hi-Y is open to any young man of good character and high standards. Each member is pledged to create, maintain and extend throughout the school and the community high standards of Christian character. Now in its twenty-sixth year, the club enjoyed an especially active season, holding meetings weekly. Some of the highlights in the calendar for the year were the following: a Christmas party for needy boys of the city, a taffy sale to raise money for the club, a series of talks on vocations, a Fathers' Night, and a Mothers' Night. One of the most important events of the club occurred when some of the members took over for an evening the positions of Mayor, City Clerk, and Council Members in the Brockton City Government. Officers were as follows: President, Frederick Baroncelli; Vice-President, Robert Kelleher; Secretary, Frederick Quinn; Treasurer, Philip Lindquist; Alden Lane was the director of the group; Mr. William J. Montgomery, Mr. Nelson E. Sanborn, Mr. Edward J. Beyor, and Mr. Robert S. Prince served as advisors.

Yearbook Staff

Composed of students who excel in their respective fields of typing, literature, art, photography, sports, and business, the "Brocktonia" Yearbook Staff has had the difficult task of preparing a journal covering the activities of the 1949 graduating class from its initiation to Brockton High School in 1946 to its departure in 1949.

This year, under the competent editorship of Dolores Ackel, and the capable supervision of Mr. Kelly, the members of the Staff wrote articles, sorted and mounted pictures, sought advertisements, drew illustrations and cartoons, typed numerous notes, and in general carried on an extensive and altogether successful yearbook project.

"Brocktonia" Newspaper

Under the able direction of managing editor Carolyn Cole, the "Brocktonia" Staff has been issuing a monthly newspaper, truly worthy of Brockton High School. Among the innovations for 1949 were "Hashin' Fashion," a column covering the latest women's fashions, and "Platter Prattler," a very excellent report on the latest developments in the music world.

The "Brocktonia" Staff members were rewarded for their diligence and skill during the school year when they were informed that their newspaper had received second prize in Columbia National Press Association contest.

The seniors on the staff were Carolyn Cole, managing editor; Joel Rankin, business manager; George Power, advertising manager; Kenton McCarthy, circulation manager; Bob Brady, sports editor; Nancy O'Neill, Myrna Kaufman, Abbott Miller, feature editors; Dolores Ackel, Anne Doody, Dick Stoughton, John Wallan, and Barbara Stiles, reporters. The staff advisers were Mr. Francis Hopkins and Mr. Norman Nash.

Library Monitors

Among the various activities open to students of our school, perhaps the most important is the Library Monitors' Club. Each pupil belonging to it not only learns the fundamentals of library work and acquires efficiency and patience, but also is a necessary component to the functioning whole.

Under the capable leadership of Miss Evelyn Robinson, and with the expert help of a small group of part time commercial students, the monitors stamp books, write notices for overdue books, and cheerfully carry out the small but sometimes tiresome duties assigned to them.

The names of the students are Theresa Pauline Allen, Jean Lois Bryant, Sylvia Byer, Joan Marie Callahan, Janice Ann Chaskes, Sylvia Ann Cohen, Gloria Emma Conzatti, Sondra Eileen Costello, Maureen Ann Crahan, Elaine Daniels, Carlene Ellen Dodd, Georgia Phyllis Eonas, Virginia Ann Fitzpatrick, Barbara M. G. Fortier, Marguerite L. Fortier, Eleanor Ruth Gilmore, Beverly Ann Gouldrup, Geraldine Louise Gurney, Arthur Edward Houlihan, Marilyn Eldredge Hughes, Ruth Mary Jeffery, Claire Lorain Magee, Lee Mary Murphy, Rosemary Murray, Lois Carlene Newton, Mary Pell, Helene Ruth Smolensky, Ruth Beverly St. James, Norma Ruth Sullivan, Carol Teplow, Ann Turpin, Jean Pat Walsh, Carolyn Grace Weston, Robert Masson, Robert Ewell, and Janet Tinkham.

Members who served three years are Beverly Gouldrup, Marilyn Hughes, Barbara Fortier, Robert Masson, and James Healey.

The part-time helpers are Sue Di Stefano, Marguerite Voci, Jeanne Kendrick, Elinor Anderson, Ruth Armstead, Lorraine Doody, Lorraine Waltas, and Gladys Lanoue.

Senior Dues Collectors

"I Want Some Money," certainly was the theme song of our energetic dues collectors, for many were the mornings that financially embarrassed pupils tried to evade these potential financiers. They truly deserve much praise, for they handled even the most obstinate debtors with consummate tact. Who are worthier of recognition than those people who saw to it that you would receive this yearbook?

The senior class dues collectors are as follows: Helen Lundin, Elaine Pitta, Charles Stranger, Kenneth Ekstrom, Girard DiLillo, Devia Ferrini, Valerie Boucher, Gardner Glenn, Shelia Linehan, Dorothy Snell, Marguerite Voci, Mary Croker, Natalie Porter, Joan Blunt, and Barbara Looke.

The Cheer Leaders

Again and again the Brockton High school cheer leaders have proved that they stand firmly behind the boys on the gridiron and the boys on the basketball court. Their energy, eagerness, and winning smiles have all contributed to that powerful force that has helped drive our men to victory.

Dressing in blazing red jackets, piped in black and worn over black ballerina-type skirts, they formed a picture of radiant American girlhood on the football field. However, on the basketball floor, red jackets gave way to black turtle-necked, long-sleeved, jersey blouses; black skirts were exchanged for scarlet corduroy ones.

Our hats off to you, Delores Seney, Barbara Nelson, Marjorie Nelson, Mary Mongeau, Gloria Grant, Frances Connell, Irene Covert, Peggy Sullivan, and Lorraine Labelle, for a job well done!

Stagecraft

Behind the scenes of almost any important presentation in the Brockton High School auditorium can be found a tiny army of students shifting to and fro performing certain stage duties. This busy group of pupils is the High School Stagecraft Staff, directed by Mr. Ronald Holt.

The Stagecraft Staff, in addition to running the school sound amplification system, has built scenery, prepared staging, devised sound and lighting effects, and all but performed in the many productions seen in our auditorium. This highly efficient staff has greatly contributed to the successes of the Senior Class Play, the Christmas Pageant, the Community Concerts, and the May Musicales, not to mention a score of other affairs.

The staff includes leaders Louis Vacca and Christine Rodophele assisted by Herbert Tyler, Neils Hallquist, George Hatch, Harold Hatch, John Nedder, Philip Williams, Edwin Jeffry, John Skelly, Paul Papineau, Richard Porter, Alice Katcharian, Barbara Pilkington, Patricia St. Pierre, and Eileen Tutty.

Student Council

The Student Council, composed of one member from each homeroom in the school, is representative of the student body. This year, the Council promoted and participated in numerous activities, including the establishment of a "Clean-Up Campaign" in the lunchroom, the sponsorship of a drive to raise money for "CARE" packages, the search for a school song, and participation in a radio broadcast on Station WBET. This radio broadcast, in which members explained their duties and activities in the Council, climaxed a year of successful undertakings.

The group was under the leadership of Robert Eklund, president; Anne Doody, vice-president; Joan Crosby, secretary; and David Jackson, treasurer. Members of the Student Council include: Carolyn Cole, Joan Crosby, Ann Curley, Anne Doody, Robert Eklund, Alice Georgandas, Robert Hallquist, Marilyn Hughes, Robert Masson, Barbara Parker, Frederick Quinn, Barbara Stiles, Jeanne Taylor, June Wentzell, Barbara Black, Richard Brooks, Dorothy Chaplain, Rose Dantonio, Donald Hayward, David Jackson, Edmond Janson-LaPalme, Frances Kumpa, Betty Marchegiano, Beverly Parker, Thalia Poleway, Marilyn Tormey, Alice Twomey, Rita Zarrella, Carol Ackerman, Thomas Brown, Paul Campbell, Ann Creed, Suzanne Derosier, Melodye Heath, Charles Janson-LaPalme, Marjorie Krause, Catherine Long, Charles Pickering, Rose Procopio, Virginia Stone, Donald Therrien, Louis Vacca, Joan Willis, Alfred Durand, and Robert Robbins.

Vice-President Niki Eonas and Secretary Margaret O'Connell headed the group of twenty-six girl ushers chosen to lead the graduating class of 1948 onto the field on Class Day afternoon and at the graduating exercises.

The girls were gowned in crisp white ballerina-style dresses with matching ballerina slippers. They carried a garland of deep red American Beauty roses, which they had fashioned themselves.

Last year twenty-two boys were selected from the Junior Class to act as ushers during the graduating exercises of the Class of 1948. On Class Day and on Graduation Night the boys, dressed in light trousers, dark jackets, and maroon neckties, ushered the parents of the graduates to the grandstand. On class night they served refreshments to the graduating class.

Class of 1951

The Class of 1951, 609 pupils in number, entered Brockton High School on September 8, 1948, and occupied eighteen home rooms. At the first assembly meeting of the class Headmaster Ralph S. Frellick acquainted the group with the customs of the school. The year's activities opened with the selection of the Constitution Committee and Student Council. The former held its initial meeting on October 7, while the latter held its first meeting on October 22. Following this the dues collectors were chosen. They held their first meeting on October 28. On March 17 the class met for an election rally, and each candidate presented a campaign speech. The results of the election held on March 24 were: President, Charles Pickering, Jr.; Vice-President, Carole Bourne; Secretary, Gloria Conzatti; Treasurer, George Lipper; Executive Committee, Joan Walsh, Lloyd Gilson, Gail Bryant, Catherine Long, and Edward Walsh.

On April 7 the class chose maroon with white as class colors, and later the officers selected the design for the class banner.

Miss Doris Hathaway of the faculty guided the group in its activities throughout the year.

Class of 1950

The "49ers' Frolic" in January 1949 highlighted the activities of the Class of 1950. The junior class officers collaborating with the senior officers made the dance a most successful social and financial undertaking.

Candidates for class offices were nominated, and on April 24, 1949, the juniors cast their ballots in an election. The following were elected class officers: Pasty Piscitelli, president; May Chin, vice-president; Claire Cahill, secretary; Harold Collins, treasurer; Carol Anderson, Margaret (Peggy) Sullivan, Carole West, Peter Gifford, Paul Roland, executive committee members.

Through the untiring efforts of the junior-dues collectors, who were guided by Treasurer Collins, the Class of 1950 succeeded in amassing a sizable sum in the treasury.

During the months of April and May extensive preparations were made for graduation week activities. Junior ushers were selected and they participated prominently in the commencement exercises. As a class day gift to the school, the juniors with the sophomores and seniors presented a check in payment of the public address system.

Miss B. Elizabeth Elzbut of the faculty served in the capacity of class advisor throughout the year.

Football

After compiling a record of ten wins and one defeat during the regular season, Brockton High was invited to play Beverly High for the New England Football Championship. The Brockton team's attack was hampered by penalties, but the boys came up with a 14-6 victory which made them eligible to compete against Edison High of Miami in the Orange Bowl. After a pleasant week of practice in the Florida sun, our team won a cherished 34-0 triumph in spite of the record number of penalties called against them.

The Brockton line was immovable defensively. It also deserves much of the credit for our devastating offense. Ends Ray Celia and Pat Capachione, Tackles Joe Antone and Jack Parker, Guards Chet Millett and Co-Captain Bob Flanagan, and Center George Carrigg caused fear in the hearts of our opponents. Such substitutes as Frank Ward, Victor Berlin, Michael Cappiello, and Phil Lindquist gave us plenty of reserve line strength. End Charley Starr capably kicked the points after touchdowns.

The backfield was very fast and it performed with a skill born of long practice sessions. Co-Captain Armand Colombo was the quarterback with Bob James as a substitute. Our fast halfbacks were Norm Magnanti, Dick Beals, Pat Piscitelli, Gene Nawrocki, and John Moran. Fullbacks Bob Quagliozzi and John Riordan supplied the needed punch in the line plunges.

The conduct of our boys on and off the playing field was a credit to Coach Frank Saba, Assistant Coach Howard Sandrock, and to Brockton High School. We are proud of our team and its splendid record.

Basketball

The Brockton High basketball team was better than is shown by its record of eight wins and seven defeats. Four schools, Durfee, Attleboro, Quincy, and Waltham accounted for six of the team's losses and went on to participate in the Eastern Massachusetts tournament in which they performed creditably. Our boys played well, but they were often nosed out by narrow margins providing the fans with thrills from start to finish.

The success of the team was due to the excellent playing of Guards Lowell Perry and Fred Connolly, Center Bill Marine, and Forwards Bob Flanagan and Al Gustafson. These players were relieved by Edgar Carlson, Ronnie Jones, Mike Williams, and George Nickandros. The loss of their captain, Pat Capachione, weakened the team, but the other players improved rapidly and finished the season in good form.

This was Coach Arthur Staff's thirty-fourth Brockton High basketball team and it showed the results of his excellent teaching. He was honored at the Boston Arena on "Art Staff Night," for his many years of fine work. Brocktonians are proud to have Mr. Staff accorded the statewide title of "Dean of Basketball Coaches."

Baseball

The defending Eastern Massachusetts Baseball Champions of Brockton High are off to a good start with five victories and one defeat. The only loss so far was at the hands of a fine Weymouth club early in the season.

Coach Charles Holden's team has shown power at the plate and the fielding is improving. The pitching has been superb with Co-Captains Al Gustafson and Warren Boutin doing most of the mound work and receiving help from Bill Marine, Bill Beals, Dave Rodenbush, and Bill Korske. The heavy hitting has been by Outfielder Armand Colombo and Infielders Mike Cappiello, Bob Flanagan, Jack Riordan, and Pat Capachione. The other outfield posts were played by Chet Millett and Gene Nawrocki who alternated with John Jeris and Bob Quagliozzi. Ted Mihos played shortstop with Ted DiRenzo, Charley Starr, and Carroll Promades acting as substitute infielders and Ronald Jones was a reserve outfielder. Coach Holden was aided in turning out this fine team by Assistant Coach Norman Nash and Student Manager Eldon Provost. We are sure that the performance of our team will be a credit to the coaches and to Brockton High School.

Track Team

The Brockton High indoor track team improved as the season progressed and finished a close second in the State Meet. The members of the squad that qualified went on to compete in the New England Meet where they again missed first place by a narrow margin. In this meet, the relay team consisting of Dick Beals, Gene Franciosi, Captain Bob Jones, and Peter Tsokanis established a New England record that should stand for some time.

The outdoor team is showing great strength with lopsided victories over Brookline and Quincy and an exciting win in a quadrangular meet with Newton, Brookline, and Somerville. Most of the boys are improving, and our team is in the running for the state and New England titles.

Two seniors, Captain Bob Jones and Bob James, carry the Brockton standard in the high hurdles while sophomores, Bob O'Brien and Bob Lanzetta compete in the low hurdles. Dick Beals, Pat Piscitelli, Jim Iacovo, and John Davis represent the team in the hundred yard dash with Gene Franciosi, Stan MacPhail, and Bob Cahill running the two-twenty. Jack Flynn, Lowell Cobb, Ed Moberg, and Dick Loring run the four-forty, and Peter Tsokanis, Dick Ripley, Jack Hopkins, and Melvin Gold score our points in the half mile. The milers who have showed continued improvement are Terry O'Donnell, John Courtemanche, and Bob Anderson. In the field events, we have Bob Jones and Bob James in the high jump and broad jump with Ray Lessard, Bob Lanzetta, and Bill Korske throwing the shot put.

Coach Howard Sandrock has worked hard since coming to Brockton High, and much of the credit for the team's success belongs to him. Under his guidance, Brockton has regained its former standing in interscholastic track.

Golf

The Brockton High golf team under the direction of Coach Lloyd Avery is enjoying another successful season with four victories and one loss to date. The boys have defeated Brookline, Weymouth, Coyle, and Hyannis, and they have lost to Dartmouth. There will be return matches with these schools besides an encounter with Waltham High. The second match with Dartmouth will be a very important one for our team.

The stars for Brockton High thus far have been Dick Wallin, Frank Hatch, John Hatch, Bob Hammerquist, Myles MacDonald, and Ed Noone. The team has in reserve Harold Willis, Harold Latham, Arthur Brown, George Black, Bob Eklund, and Louis Ciavarra.

If our players continue to display as good form as they have in the first five matches, they will be strong contenders for the state championship.

Tennis

The Brockton High tennis team has started a season which promises to be another successful one for Coach August Wigren's boys. The team won its first match of the season from Hingham High by a score of 3-2. There will be matches with Milton, Braintree, Quincy, and North Quincy. The Brockton squad will compete in the South Shore Tournament in which it has done well during past years.

Coach Wigren has been using three seniors, Co-Captains Ronald Carr and George Allen, and William Ferrini as singles men. Gordon LaPlant and Sherman Wong make up one of the doubles combinations with Matt Crimmins, Jack Hopkins, and Don Oliver alternating for the second doubles spot. Other members of the team are Dave Clorety, Dave Franklin, and Manager Harold O'Connell.

With a little more practice the team should improve. As only three players are seniors, continued success seems certain.

Hockey

The schedule of the Brockton High hockey team was disrupted by warm weather and little ice. In spite of this, Coach Carl MacPherson's squad played four games in the South Shore league and two non-league games. The team was undefeated and tied only once in league competition, but was forced to take second place because another school had played more games. Some of the Brockton boys played for the South Shore all-star team in a game against the North Shore team and they performed very well. Hockey has been carried on only as an intramural activity for the past few years, and this has been the first team to represent Brockton High against other schools for some time.

Most of the scoring was done by Gene Nawrocki, John Beauregard, Henry Belcher, Bob Quagliozzi, and John Hatch, Herbert Quarterly, George Carrigg, Chet Millett and Goalies Wendell Wilbar and Malcolm Snyder played very well on the defense. The success of the team indicates that Brockton will have very good hockey teams in the years to come.

Cross Country

The Brockton High cross country team had a successful season winning three dual meets and losing one. Although it was only our third team since the sport was revived at Brockton High, the squad finished second in the South Shore Conference meet at Braintree. Brockton was edged out by Braintree High in the first meet of the season, but the team went on to win over North Quincy, Quincy, and Weymouth. The Quincy race was particularly noteworthy in that the Brockton boys won 15 to 47, fifteen being the best score a cross country team can make.

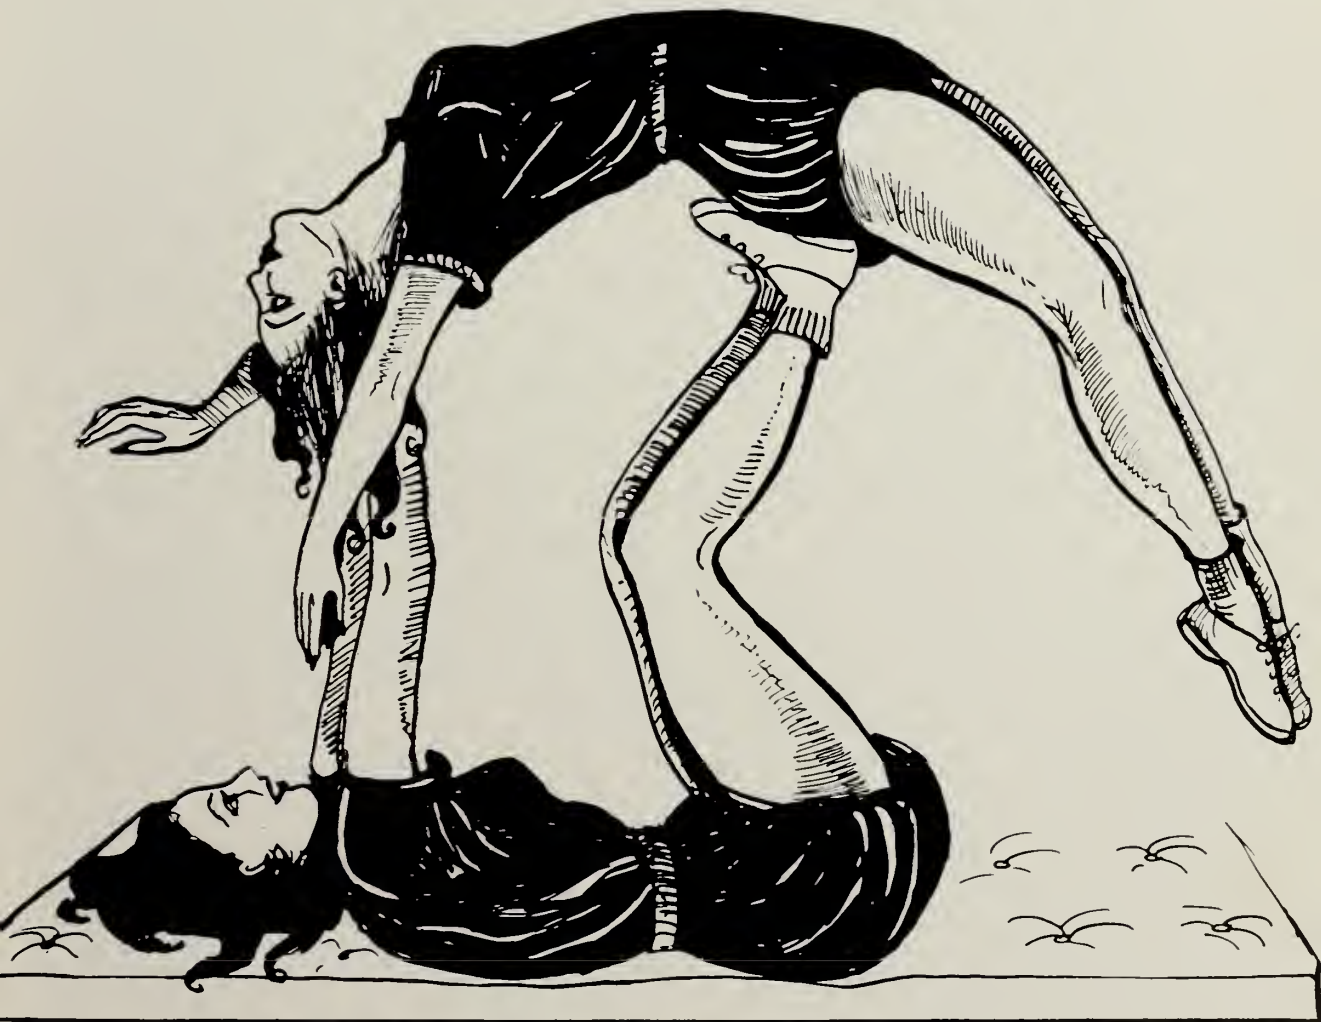

The consistent low scorers of Coach Harry Reuell's club were Peter Tsokanis, John Courtemanche, George Allen, Terry O'Donnell, Paul Roland, Melvin Gold, and Captain Bob Anderson.

This sport is becoming increasingly popular at Brockton High. The boys that were out for it this year worked hard and showed a great deal of enthusiasm.

GIRLS' SPORTS

Girls' Sports Council

The ambition of every all-round sportswoman at Brockton High is to be a member of the Sports Council. This organization is composed of girls who successfully pass an examination given at the completion of a course involving ethics and methods of conducting competitive sports.

The council members arrange the schedule and decide the number of points to be given intramural sports. They also settle any questions governing the extra-curricular activities of the girls' department of physical education. They are busy throughout the year officiating in the sports of Brockton High School in which they are particularly qualified, as well as serving as coaches or officials during the junior high school girls' basketball season.

The "B" Sweater Seniors

The most coveted honor at Brockton High School for the sports-minded girl is the receiving of a "B" sweater which indicates good attendance and participation in all athletic activities. A total of one hundred and twenty-five points is necessary for the sweater. In many cases girls have excelled in several sports, among which are basketball, softball, field hockey, swimming, and tumbling. The girls are Janet Doane, Beverly Gouldrup, Anne Doody, Barbara Dunsing, Rita Di Cicco, Constance Lewis, Ann-Marie Nilsson, Jane Petrie, Grace Richmond, Anita Sample, Claire Magee, Alice Georgandas, Grace Hendricks, Joan Nelson, Margaret Kearney, and Mary-Elizabeth Farley.
